CASE NUMBER: 12-cr-140-01-PB
DEFENDANT: Lisa Biron

Judgment - Page 4 of 6

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

In addition, the defendant shall comply with the following special conditions:

The defendant shall participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. The defendant shall pay for the cost of treatment to the extent she is able as determined by the probation officer.

The defendant shall neither possess nor have under her control any material depicting sexually explicit conduct as that term is defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2) involving adults or children. This includes but is not limited to any 'matter' obtained through access to any computer or any material linked to computer access or use.

The defendant shall maintain a complete, current inventory of her computer access including but not limited to any bills pertaining to computer access, telephone bills used for modem access, or other charges accrued in the use of a computer. The defendant shall submit a monthly record of computer use and bills to the probation officer and shall provide the probation officer with any on-line screen names or passwords she uses. The defendant shall not use any software designed for the purpose of encryption or wiping computer disk space and/or drives.

The defendant shall participate in a sex offender specific assessment as directed by the supervising officer.

The defendant must participate in a specialized sex offender treatment program that may include use of a plethysmograph. The defendant shall pay for the cost of treatment to the extent she is able as determined by the probation officer.

The defendant must submit to polygraph examination as a containment strategy for the management of sex offenders.

The defendant may not directly or indirectly contact the victim or any child under age 18; and, may not loiter within 100 yards of any school yard, playground, swimming pool, arcade, or other such place frequented by children.

The defendant may not loiter within 100 yards of any school yard, playground, swimming pool, arcade, or other such place frequented by children.

The defendant may not use sexually-oriented telephone numbers or services.

The defendant shall consent to third-party disclosure to any employer, potential employer, community service site, or other interested party, as determined by the probation officer, of any computer-related restrictions that are imposed.

The defendant's place of residence may not be within 100 yards of any park, playground, public pool, or any business or facility operated principally for the care, control, custody or supervision of, or use by minor children.

The defendant is barred from the use of the internet and all media devices with interactive computer service, as defined in U.S.C. § 230(f), without prior approval of the probation officer.

The defendant shall consent to the installation of systems that will enable the probation office or its designee to monitor computer use on any computer owned or controlled by the defendant. The defendant shall pay for the cost of the installation of such systems to the extent she is able as determined by the probation officer.

The defendant shall submit her person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search conducted by a U.S. Probation officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion that contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release may exist; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

Upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the court may: (1) revoke supervision; (2) extend the term of supervision; and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.
